

JS - STUDENT USE OF DISTRICT INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

Student use of District information technology is a privilege, not a right, and is only authorized for education-related purposes. Student use of District information technology shall be in accordance with this policy, in accordance with governing law and in accordance with other relevant District policies and regulations. Each time a student uses a District computer or network, the student shall acknowledge the terms and conditions in this policy that govern the student's use of District information technology.

Student authorization to use District information technology may be suspended at any time it is in the District's best interest to do so, as determined by the District in its sole discretion. The District reserves the right to set and revise limits on student network bandwidth usage and e-mail and file storage on District computers. Student authorization to use District information technology on all District computers and PCDs through which students may gain Internet access. District employees responsible for classes, programs or activities involving student Internet access shall instruct the students, prior to allowing such access, regarding Internet safety and appropriate online behavior. District employees responsible for classes, programs or activities involving student Internet access shall also assist the students to develop skills to discriminate among information sources, to identify information appropriate to their age and developmental levels, and to search, evaluate and use information appropriate to their educational goals. The District may monitor students' online activity to verify that they are safely and appropriately using the Internet. Despite these protections, it is possible that a student might encounter inappropriate material through Internet access using the District's computers, PCDs and/or network. If this occurs, the student shall immediately back out of the site and notify a responsible District employee.
